

Students honored with Appreciation for Outstanding Radio Production Work

The Department of Communication and Media Technology Dept. recognized their brilliant students for their outstanding contributions to Radio Production work. Students have successfully recorded and launched more than 300 radio programs on different formats. #Students were honored and received appreciation letters from Dr. Pawan Singh, Chairperson of the department. The Radio production work was done by the #students under the supervision of □□ □□□□ □□□□□, Assistant Professor of the department.

